

The Autism Family Network

Your child has someone like them nearby.

tism helps you find that family.

A free app where autism families find and stay connected with each other.

- Join your school's parent group
- Connect with nearby families
- Plan playdates around what your kids love
- Share what works — and what doesn't

No ads. No cost. No child data collected. Ever.

Private — You control what you share. We never collect information about your child.

Safe — Block and report on every interaction. Crisis resources always one tap away.

Parents only — This app is for parents and caregivers. Children do not use it.

Local — Built by an autism dad in DFW. Not a corporation. A family.
